

RESOLUTION

Honoring Jack Friou for his Service to the Insurance Industry

Whereas, Jack Friou is a graduate of the University of Georgia, and served with distinction in the United States Army; and

Whereas, Jack Friou is known among his peers as “the Dean” of the insurance government relations corps, admired for his knowledge, dedication, and professionalism; and

Whereas, Jack Friou has served on the Board of Directors of the NALC for two terms, helping our organization sharpen its focus on the strengths of state regulation, and providing a greater emphasis on issues like supplemental insurance benefits; and

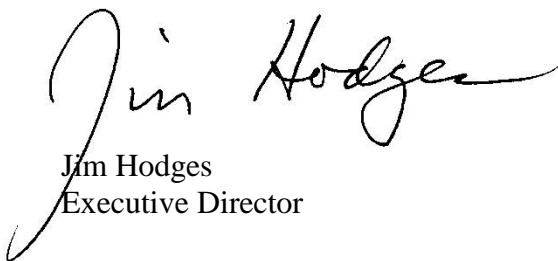

Whereas, Jack Friou recently stepped down as Senior Vice President and Director of Government Relations of AFLAC after 43 years with the company, and will retire at the end of the calendar year; and

Whereas, the membership of the NALC wishes to congratulate Jack Friou on his service to AFLAC and its customers, and also his dedication to the insurance profession;

NOW, THEREFORE, The Board of Directors of the NALC, in lawful assembly, does hereby resolve that Jack Friou be honored for his service to the insurance industry in general, and the NALC in particular;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we wish Jack Friou an enjoyable and pleasant retirement with his family, and many beautiful afternoons on his boat on the Florida Gulf Coast.

BE IT SO RESOLVED on this 13th day of September, 2017.
